Collection and processing personal data

General
When you visit our Websites, our Web server saves temporary to the purpose of system safety the domain name or the IP address of the inquiring computer as well as the access date, the file request of the client (file name and URL), the HTTP answer code, the Website from which you visited us and the number of bytes transmitted in the course of the connection. If need be, we save some information on your computer in the form of "cookies" so that we may optimize our Websites in accordance with you preferences. The cookies we utilize do not collect any personal information. In most web browsers, cookies are automatically accepted. You can avoid cookies or remove them from your computer at any time by changing your browser settings.

Analyse internet
In order to offer you a better service and to improve the user experience of our Websites, we use a traffic management solution that utilizes the cookie technology. The collected data give us anonymous traffic statistics like the number of page views, of visits and the frequency of recurring visits. If you stay on this site, you accept that we utilize cookies for traffic management.
The opt-out option on http://www.xiti.com/de/optout.aspx allows you to prevent data from being collected when you visit the following websites.
To opt out, you first have to accept an “anti-cookie” cookie from the AT Internet that remains valid for 10 years. We can thus detect that you do not agree with the collection of your data.
This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service operated and hosted by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043 United States ("Google").

Google analyzes your use of this website on our behalf as a processor and generates reports on website activities. For this purpose, so-called "cookies" – text files which are stored on your computer and which enable an analysis of the use of the website by you – are used. During your stay on this website, for example, the pages visited, technical information (browser, internet provider, screen resolution, terminal device) and the web browser used are captured. The data collected is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA, where it is stored and analyzed. However, we have enabled IP anonymization so that your IP address will be shortened within the member states of the European Union or other states party to the European Economic Area Agreement before it is sent to the United States. In exceptional cases, the IP address will only be shortened after the transfer to the USA. Google is also certified in the EU Privacy Shield, which means that an appropriate level of data protection has also been established for data at Google in the USA. This data is processed to improve the usability of the website and our offer. Processing is based on the user's consent (art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO). The data will be deleted 14 months after collection. You can, of course, revoke your consent at any time with effect for the future. For this purpose, please download and install the Browser Add On for the deactivation of Google Analytics.
Further information can be found in the Google Privacy Policy for Google Analytics, the Terms of Use for Google Analytics and the Google Privacy Policy.

We use Thomas WebTrax™ from Thomas Publishing LLC, USA. WebTrax recognizes visits by companies to our website based on IP addresses and shows us publicly available information for this purpose, such as company names or addresses. In addition, Web Trax sets two first-party cookies to evaluate user behavior on our website and processes domains from form entries to correlate IP addresses with companies and improve the services. Further information on storage, deletion and the rights of data subjects at Thomas can be found at https://www.thomasnet.com/privacy.html.
We use the analytics service ZoomInfo WebSights from the provider ZoomInfo Technologies LLC (USA) on our website.
ZoomInfo WebSights collects the IP addresses of users in order to identify organizations. For this purpose, ZoomInfo uses publicly available information, licenses data from other companies and collects information itself. No direct conclusions are drawn about individual persons. We analyze visit data by categories such as industry, revenue, number of employees and location in order to target advertising campaigns to organizations.
ZoomInfo WebSights uses cookies to analyze the use of our website and processes IP addresses in the process. This is done with your consent in accordance with Section 25 (1) TDDDG and Art. 6 (1) (a) GDPR. You can revoke this consent at any time via our Consent Management Tool with effect for the future.
When using the service, a transfer of your data to the USA cannot be ruled out. Please note the information in the section “Data transfer to third countries”. Further information on data protection at ZoomInfo can be found in ZoomInfo's privacy policy at www.zoominfo.com/legal/privacy-policy

Post-view-tracking
This website uses Google DoubleClick (Floodlights) cookies. Doubleclick is a service of Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA. Cookies are small text files that are stored in the browser of a user. The cookies are used to analyze the usage of the website. The data collected will be used only for statistical purposes and in anonymous form. Your browser will be assigned a pseudonymous identification number (ID). All data is recorded anonymously so that no conclusion can be drawn about specific persons. Users can prevent the use of cookies by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available under this link. Alternatively, the user can disable the Doubleclick cookies on the Digital Advertising website under the following link.

Retargeting
This website uses Google DoubleClick (Floodlights) cookies. Doubleclick is a service of Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA. Cookies are small text files that are stored in the browser of a user. The cookies are used to advertise products of this website provider (retargeting). At a later time, advertisements (e.g., banner ads, text-picture advertisements, videos, etc.) may be displayed to the users on other websites. Your browser will be assigned a pseudonymous identification number (ID). All data is recorded anonymously so that no conclusion can be drawn about specific persons. Users can opt-out from retargeting by modifying their ads preferences for Google Remarketing Tags. Alternatively, users may disable the use of 3rd-party cookies by using the opt-out page of the Network Advertising Initiative.“

Contact information
The personal data you entered as contact information will be collected, processed and used exclusively for the purpose of handling your request and for contacting you. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the data you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. The legal foundation for processing your data is Article 6 Section 1 lit. a, f of the General Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO).
Insofar as you have not expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations do not prohibit the deletion of such data, your personal data will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled.

Application questionnaire
The personal data that you entered as part of filling in the application questionnaire and sending it in will be collected, processed and used by us exclusively for handling your questionnaire and for contacting you. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the data you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. The legal foundation for processing your data is Article 6 Section 1 lit. a, f of the General Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO).
Insofar as you have not expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations do not prohibit the deletion of such data, your personal data will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled.

Ordering data sheets
The personal data you entered as part of the data sheet ordering process will be collected, processed and used exclusively for the purpose of determining whether you are a competitor and then for processing your order. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the data you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. The legal foundation for processing your data is Article 6 Section 1 lit. a, f of the General Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO).
Insofar as you have not expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations do not prohibit the deletion of such data, your personal data will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled.

Ordering BOND it
The personal data you entered as part of the process of ordering BOND it will be collected, processed and used exclusively for the purpose of processing your order. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the data you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. The legal foundation for processing your data is Article 6 Section 1 lit. a, f of the General Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO). In individual cases, your personal data will be sent to a authorized dealer so that your request can be processed.
Insofar as you have not expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations do not prohibit the deletion of such data, your personal data will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled.

Newsletter
On our websites, you can subscribe to our newsletters so that you can receive information on current issues, new products as well as receiving tips and tricks on connection technology. In the scope of the subscribing process, we collect some personal data like your name and your e-mail address. To receive the newsletter, all you have to do is enter your e-mail address. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the e-mail address you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. By entering your e-mail address and sending in the form, you agree to receive our newsletter (Article 6 Sect. 1 lit. a General Data Protection Act (DSGVO)).
Any other personal data entered is used exclusively for personalizing and sending out our e-mails. To send out e-mail, we use the third-party supplier email application inxmail for the purpose of saving and processing your personal data. We do not otherwise provide personal data to third parties.
To prevent the misuse of e-mail addresses and to meet the requirements for effective newsletter mailings, subscribers are requested to confirm their subscription to our newsletters using an automated e-mail process (double opt-in). Once registration has been successfully confirmed, the registration process is completed and the newsletter is sent to you.

In a statistical purpose, we perform an anonymized link-tracking. It is not possible to identify specific receivers.
Naturally, you can cancel your subscription at any time by either conveniently using the link that can be found at the bottom of each of our e-mails or by sending the form along with your e-mail address when you select the "unsubscribe" field on page https://www.delo-adhesives.com/us/press-and-news/newsletter or per e-mail contact@DELO.de.
After successfully unsubscribing, the personal data used for the purpose of newsletter mailings will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled, insofar as you have not expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations do not prohibit the deletion of such data.

Press mailing list
From our websites, you can subscribe to our press mailing list in order to receive current company press releases from DELO and information on new products. As part of the subscription process, we do collect some of your personal data, such as your name and your e-mail address. To receive the press mailing list, all you have to do is enter your e-mail address. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the e-mail address you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration. By entering your e-mail address and sending in the form, you agree to receive our press mailing list (Art. 6 Sect. 1 lit. a General Data Protection Act (DSGVO)).
Any other personal data entered is used exclusively for personalizing and sending out our e-mails. Your data shall not be passed on to any third party.
To prevent the misuse of e-mail addresses and to meet the requirements for effectively agreeing to receive the press mailing list, subscribers are requested to confirm their subscription to our press mailing list using an automated e-mail process (double opt-in). Once registration is successfully confirmed, the registration process is complete and the press mailing list will be sent to you.
In a statistical purpose, we perform an anonymized link-tracking. It is not possible to identify specific receivers.
Naturally, you can cancel your subscription at any time by either conveniently using the link that can be found at the bottom of each of our e-mails or by sending the form along with your e-mail address when you select the "unsubscribe" field on the page https://www.delo-adhesives.com/us/press-and-news/press-distribution-list or by e-mail to contact@DELO.de.
After successfully unsubscribing, your personal data stored for the purpose of sending the press mailing list will be deleted unless you have expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations prohibit the deletion of such data.

Registering for seminar / training workshop
The personal data you entered as part of the registration process for a seminar / training workshop will be collected and stored in our systems. Your personal data will be processed and used exclusively for the purpose of registration, invoicing and conducting the seminar. To confirm registration and to make it possible to track misuse of the data you entered, we take the additional step of storing the date, time and IP at the time of registration.
Your personal data will be made available only on an as-needed basis to the provider of the event location as well as to any external lecturers. Unless you have expressly agreed to other processing options or legal retention obligations prohibit the deletion of such data, your personal data will be deleted as soon as their purpose has been fulfilled.

Job application

In addition to the general data protection declaration, the data protection information on the handling of application data by DELO applies to applicants.

DELO Download Portal
Special data protection provisions apply to the DELO Download Portal in addition to the general data privacy policy.

Contact support in Extended-Relationship-Management (XRM)
Contact details (especially name, address, job title, e-mail address and phone number) that we receive in the course of business communication, at events or in some similar manner (handing out of business cards) or that we research from public domain sources are stored at DELO for initiating and concluding contracts, and also to maintain our records of business contacts. For this, these contact details are transferred to our XRM.
This processing of personal details is conducted, where applicable, to carry out pre-contractual procedures and to fulfil a contract (Art. 6 Abs. 1 lit. b GDPR) and also, on the basis of our justified interest in the upkeep of contacts that arise in the context of our business activity, and that should be used for further development of those contacts and business relationships that proceed from them (Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR)

General Sweepstakes Rules
The duration of the sweepstakes varies and is determined based on the information provided. If not stated otherwise, a specific prize will be awarded. Eligible participants must be 18 years or older and meet the specified entry requirements. The regular sweepstakes duration is one week from the time of the sweepstakes posting - unless otherwise stated in the posting - and typically involves a specific prize being awarded.
Failure to meet these conditions will result in disqualification from the sweepstakes. Winners will be randomly selected and notified via the provided contact information. Each winner has 5 business days to provide their address details, otherwise the prize will be redrawn.
Cash payment or transfer of the prize to other individuals is not possible. Participant contact information will be collected and stored for winner determination. All data will be deleted no later than 30 days after the end of the sweepstakes. Only the address details of the winners will be used for prize shipment. Participants have legal rights to information, modification, and revocation.
The sweepstakes is not associated with, sponsored by, supported, or organized by Facebook or Instagram. The organizer of the sweepstakes is DELO Industrie Klebstoffe GmbH & Co. KGaA. The entry requirements can be found in the corresponding post, and multiple entries are not allowed. Comments that violate Facebook or Instagram guidelines, German law, or copyright will be removed, and participants will be disqualified from winning. Employees and their family members are excluded from participation. Winners will be informed via private message on their Facebook/Instagram account and must provide their address details within 5 business days, otherwise the prize will be redrawn. The Facebook/Instagram names of participants will be collected and stored for winner determination. All data will be deleted no later than 30 days after the end of the sweepstakes, while comments on Facebook/Instagram will remain publicly visible.
Participants have legal rights to information, modification, and revocation according to the privacy policy of DELO Industrie Klebstoffe GmbH & Co. KGaA, available at https://www.delo-adhesives.com/privacy.

Use and forwarding of the above-mentioned personal data
Your personal data is used exclusively for the technical administration of the websites and to meet your wishes and requests. We shall not disclose any data to government agencies unless required to do so by law. Our employees are obligated to treat your data confidentially.

Security
To protect your personal data stored in our systems from unauthorized access and abuse we have introduced extensive technical and operational security measures. Our security procedures are checked regularly and are adapted to meet technological advances.

URL Shortener
We use the services of bit.ly Inc, (New York City (HQ), 139, 5TH. Avenue, 5th. Floor, New York, NY 10010, USA, to shorten URLs when posting to social media platforms and to create QR codes. Bit.ly collects anonymous usage data to tell us how often a particular shortened link was clicked. This information is aggregated and not reported on an individual basis. Bit.ly does not collect personally identifiable information about you and does not have access to information you provide to us. We chose Bit.ly as our preferred URL shortening service due to it's a company, registered under the EU-US Privacy Shield, which means that it offers data protection standards comparable to those of the GDPR.

More information about how bit.ly uses cookies and collects usage data is available in their privacy policy at: https://bitly.com/pages/privacy.

Rights of the data subject

Right of access, Art. 15 GDPR

You may request us to grant access to personal data which are processed by us. We would ask you to define your issue precisely in order to make it easier for us to compile the required data. As a precaution we would like to point out that your right of access may in some circumstances be excluded or limited according to statutory provisions (particularly sec. 34 Federal Data Protection Act).

Right to rectification, Art. 16 GDPR

Provided that the personal data concerning you are inaccurate or incomplete, you may request the correction and/or completion.

Right to erasure, Art. 17 GDPR

Under the conditions of Art. 17 GDPR you can demand immediate erasure of the personal data concerning you. The right to erasure may be limited or excluded. Grounds for exclusion particularly exist if the erasure is barred by a legal obligation requiring the processing according to Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject.

Right to restriction of processing, Art. 18 GDPR

Under the conditions of Art. 18 GDPR you may demand restriction of the future processing of personal data concerning you.

The right to data portability, Art. 20 GDPR

Under the conditions of Art. 20 GDPR you have the right to receive the personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit the personal data to a third party, respectively, if this is technically feasible.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, Art. 77 GDPR

If you consider that the processing of personal data relating to you infringes any data protection laws, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. Such a complaint will be lodged without prejudice to any other administrative or legal remedy. The complaint can be lodged in particular in the Member State of your habitual residence, your place of work or the place of the alleged infringement.

Right to object, Art. 21 GDPR

Pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR, you have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you. Please note that the processing cannot be ceased, if we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
If you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data concerning you will no longer be used for such purposes.

Right of revocation of the consent under data protection laws

You have the right to cancel your declaration of consent under data protection laws at any time with future effect. The lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until revocation will not be affected.

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service operated and provided by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043 United States (“Google”).
As a data processor acting on our behalf, Google analyzes your use of this website and creates reports about website activity. For this purpose, Google uses so-called “cookies”. These are small text files that are stored on your computer to permit an analysis of your use of the website. The information collected during your visit to this website includes the pages visited, technical data (browser, Internet provider, screen resolution, terminal device), and the web browser used. The data collected is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA, where it is stored and analyzed. However, we only use Google Analytics with activated IP anonymization. This means that your IP address will be shortened within member states of the European Union or in other contracting states of the Agreement on the European Economic Area before it is transmitted to the USA. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be sent to a Google server in the USA and be shortened there. Google is also certified under the US-EU Privacy Shield Agreement, which ensures an appropriate data protection level in the USA. This data processing is done to improve the usability of the website and our offer. Data processing is based on the user's consent (Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a GDPR). The data will be deleted 14 months after collection. You can of course withdraw your consent at any time with future effect. To do this, please download and install the Browser Add-On to disable Google Analytics.

Further information can be found in the Google Google Analytics Privacy Policy, the Google Analytics Terms of Use, and the Google Privacy Policy.
